Materials is where you will find your lessons and assignments

Updates are where your teachers will provide updates specifically for your class.

Message your teacher

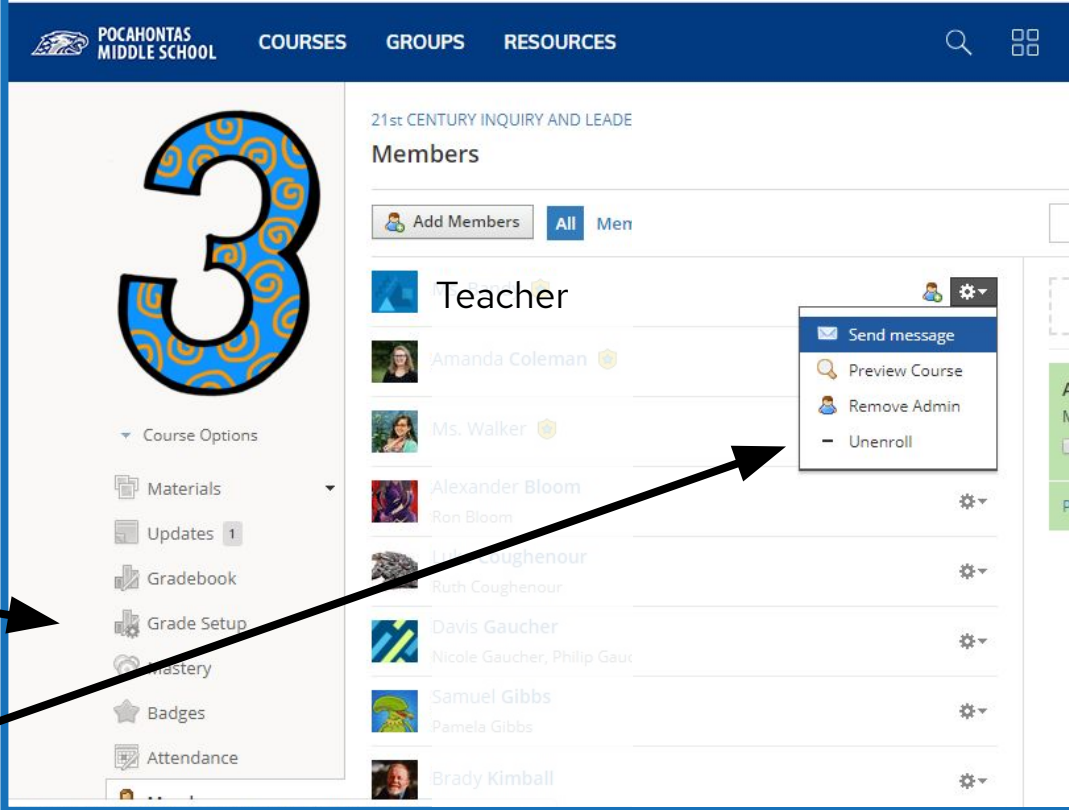

Messages in Schoology work sort of like email. You can send and receive Messages with your teachers. To send a message, click the envelope icon, click New Message, and search teachers name.

New Message

A screenshot of the 'New Message' form in Schoology. The form has a title bar 'New Message' with a close button. It contains three main sections: 'To: *' with an empty text input field; 'Subject: *' with a text input field containing the placeholder text 'Type the name of someone in your network'; and 'Message:' with a large text area. At the bottom, there are icons for attachments, a link, a document, and a search icon, followed by 'Send' and 'Cancel' buttons. An orange arrow points from the 'New Message' button in the navigation bar to the 'To:' field in the form.

Can't find your teacher?

- Go into your course
- Click members on the left
- Click the cog wheel beside teacher's name
- Select "Message Teacher"

The user "Teacher" is highlighted, and a context menu is open next to their name, displaying options: "Send message", "Preview Course", "Remove Admin", and "Unenroll". A large black arrow points from the "Send message" option in the context menu to the "Members" tab on the left sidebar of the course page.
